

-- Our service this morning is all about gathering together to ask Almighty God to draw near to us and show us His glory.

Concert of Prayer

1.) Repentance (v. 3-4)

- The most devastating consequence of the golden calf disaster was God's declaration that He would no longer go with Israel.
- Let us repent of any idols of the heart or besetting sins that might inhibit the manifest presence and glory of God among us.
- Prayers:

2.) Holiness (v. 12-13)

- In his desperation for God's active presence, Moses pleads with God to make him holy.
- Let us pray that, by our actions and attitudes, we will find favor with God so that He will be pleased to bless with His manifest presence.
- Prayers:

3.) Presence (v. 14-17)

- Do we have the zeal of Moses for the manifest presence of God?
- Would we plead for God's active and abiding presence in us and among us in all that we are and do?
- Prayers:

4.) Glory (v. 18)

- In an ultimate expression of love for God and longing to be near to Him, Moses says to God, "Please show me your glory."
- Let us, like Moses, pray that God will be well pleased to show His glory to us and work His glory through us.
- Prayers:
